Use of Parish Facilities

- 1. Facility booking does not include availability of clergy. Clergy availability, when needed, must be arranged by the KofC.
2. Use of parish facilities are allocated only if the COVID-19 protocols at the time of the building use allow.
3. Adherence to COVID-19 protocols, including social distancing, mask wearing, and sanitizing, is required when using parish facilities. It is up to the KofC to check with the Leadership Team regarding any changes to COVID-19 protocols.
4. Approved dates mean that the KofC ministry can meet in the allocated space on the approved date/s.
5. Approved date/s indicate facility use does not include parish-wide communication or promotion of events, programs, or meetings.
6. Requests for communication of events, programs or meetings are subject to approval and availability and need to be submitted to the communications team with a minimum of two weeks notice. Requests for communication should be sent in a separate email request to communications@holytrinityns.ca.
7. The KofC is responsible for coordinating entrance and exit to and from the building.
8. The KofC is responsible for sanitizing after use.
9. KofC is responsible for updating parish administration if it is necessary to cancel or change bookings so that the parish calendar can be updated.
